

Tokareva S.N.

Sources on polices in Russian empire research of the XXth century beginning. On materials of federal archives and archives of the central Chernozem region

Annotation

In presented article the circle of sources of studying of the Russian police of beginning XX of century on an example of the Central Chernozem region is analyzed. This point in question historiography is given. The author classifies and characterizes each group of sources. Funds GARF and state archives CCR in which there is an information on police are considered. In attention are accepted both archival documents, and the published materials.

Written by Tokareva S.N.

Sunday, 02 August 2020 15:45

Keywords

Archive source, police of the Russian empire, police department, classification of sources, archival documents, the central and regional archives, periodicals and memoirs

Download the article: pdf

About author

Tokareva Svetlana Nikolaevna - associate professor of the Department of Civil Law and Process of the Regional Open Social Institute, doctoral student of the Department of Fatherland History, Kursk State University, PhD in History, Kursk; 8-471-254-45-43; 8-920-266-26-65; tokareva_sn@mail.ru

You can read completely article in the russian historic-archival magazine “The Herald of an Archivist”. Read more about terms of subscription here .

Written by Tokareva S.N.

Sunday, 02 August 2020 15:45

Полностью материал публикуется в российском историко-архивоведческом журнале ВЕСТНИК АРХИВИСТА. Ознакомьтесь с условиями подписки здесь .