HISTORY OF ARCHIVING IN THE REPUBLIC OF KAZAKHSTAN: PERSONS

Abstract

The reviewed volume “Archivists and archives of Kazakhstan” that was published to commemorate the 15th anniversary of the adoption of the first law of the sovereign Republic of Kazakhstan of December 22, 1998, no. 326-I “On the National Archival Fond and Archives” includes articles, autobiographies, memoirs, interviews with archivists of the 20th and 21st centuries. They help reconstruct history of the archiving in the Republic as seen by specialists in the field. The volume provides portraits and follows the fates of executives and rank-and-file archivists who contributed to preservation and facilitated usage of records from the national archival fond of the Republic of Kazakhstan. Organization of archiving in the Republic mostly follows trends of the archives development that are common for the post-Soviet states.
