

Raskin D.I., Sokolov A.R., Mulina I.V.,

Saint-Petersburg, Russian Federation

The Fonds of the State Duma of the Russian Empire: Pages of History

Abstract

The article describes the history of the organizing of the archives of the State Duma of Russian Empire, as well as the history of fonds of the State Duma as a part of the Russian State Historical Archive (and its predecessors). The history of the fonds of the State Duma is addressed in the context of history of archiving in Russia. It includes history of the holdings safeguarding, arranging and describing of the fonds, creating series, and using the archival data. Thanks to the selfless labour of Russian archivists, the archival fonds of the State Duma await the historians, and after being scanned for the Boris Yeltsin Presidential Library is readily available for researchers.

The Fonds of the State Duma of the Russian Empire: Pages of History

Written by Raskin D.I., Sokolov A.R., Mulina I.V.

Monday, 11 January 2021 16:48

Not a publication of the State Duma of the Russian Empire, but a reproduction of the original document for informational purposes only. The document is a historical record of the State Duma of the Russian Empire, and its content is not subject to copyright. The document is a historical record of the State Duma of the Russian Empire, and its content is not subject to copyright. Here здесь