Abstract

The article describes the history of the organizing of the archives of the State Duma of Russian Empire, as well as the history of fonds of the State Duma as a part of the Russian State Historical Archive (and its predecessors). The history of the fonds of the State Duma is addressed in the context of history of archiving in Russia. It includes history of the holdings safeguarding, arranging and describing of the fonds, creating series, and using the archival data. Thanks to the selfless labour of Russian archivists, the archival fonds of the State Duma await the historians, and after being scanned for the Boris Yeltsin Presidential Library is readily available for researchers.
The Fonds of the State Duma of the Russian Empire: Pages of History

Written by Raskin D.I., Sokolov A.R., Mulina I.V.

Monday, 11 January 2021 16:48

Keywords
The Archive of the State Duma, organizing, archival fond, holdings maintenance, arrangement and description, creating series, using archival data, scanning.

Download the article: pdf

References

About the authors
Raskin David Iosiphovich, PhD in History, professor of the Saint-Petersburg State University, head of the publications department of the Russian State Historical Archive, +7(911)1213678, d.raskin@mail.ru
Sokolov Alexander Rostislavovich, PhD in History, professor, head of the archival administration department of the Saint-Petersburg State University, +7(921)9077569, alar60@yandex.ru
Mulina Irina Voldemarovna, senior specialist at the Russian State Historical Archive, +7(950)0027407, irin-mulin@yandex.ru

You can read completely article in the russian historic-archival magazine "The Herald of an Archivist". Read more about terms of subscription here.