

Khimina N.I.

Source study and historiography problems of the House of Romanov rule in “Russian statehood” reference book

Annotation

The article analyses historical experience of creation and functioning of the Russia's government machinery, the contribution of the House of Romanovs' representatives to formation and evolution of the Russian state system, construction and development of the higher, central and local establishments system. The paper shows the contribution of the reference book «State system of Russia» to historiography of the House of Romanovs' activity on the Russian state system development by consideration of legal acts, concerning organization and progress of the government systems of state institutions, administrative and territorial, church and departmental division, creation and evolution of posts, ranks, titles, documentation systems.

Written by Khimina N.I.

Thursday, 20 July 2023 00:00

Keywords: title, book, statistic, map, Russia, historiography, sources, state, institutions, statist, in