Written by Владимир
Saturday, 10 January 2015 00:00

Dear Colleague,

We invite you to participate in the International Conference “Yalta-45” arranged to coincide with the 70th anniversary of the Yalta Conference, 1945 on the 18th of March, 2015.

The Russian Society of Historians and Archivists (RSHA) involving Russian and foreign archivists, historians, experts in source studies, museum and library stuff and university professors, invites you to participate in the International Conference arranged to coincide with the 70th anniversary of the Yalta Conference, 1945, which is to take place in Simferopol on March 18, 2015.

The project is implemented on state subsidies allocated to the Russian Society of Historians and Archivists as a government grant according to the order of the President of the Russian Federation of 25.07.2014 № 243-рп and following the All-Russia «Znanie» Society competition.

The project aims to influence the formation of public opinion abroad; to spread careful historical knowledge on Russian history; to work closely with Russian-speaking expatriate communities; to contribute to an atmosphere of interethnic respect and peace; to search out, systematize, safe-keep and popularize historical science and archival documents, which help reunite Russian and Russian emigre culture; to popularize the work of Russian-speaking historians who give objective coverage to spiritual and cultural frameworks of Russian civilization; to provide support to Russian-language mass-media and information resources abroad as consistent with grant purpose of “Scientific Knowledge Dissemination, Awareness-Building and Education Work”.

The Organizing Committee reserves the right of reviewing applications for participation in the Conference and for publication of the papers subsequent to editorial revision. The Organizing Committee doesn’t referee or return rejected papers. The participants are to receive personal invitations.

To participate in the Conference, to offer a report subject and to send an application for participation in the Conference, please, mail to: proia1990@gmail.com .