

Trufanov S.V.

Documentary sources on the history of the Soviet judicial authority in the second half of 20th century

Annotation

The present work is devoted to the analysis of sources on the history of functioning of judicial bodies of the Kursk region in 50-70 years of 20 century. The source base includes the materials of a number of Russian archives, memoirs and reminiscences of people interacting with the judiciary, and published legal acts that regulate work of the judicial system. The author gives a comparative description of these groups of sources and disclose their importance for conducted study.

Written by Trufanov S.V.

Thursday, 07 October 2021 05:04

Keywords

The judicial system, source base, historical research, the USSR, archives, Kursk region.

Download the article: pdf

About the authors

Trufanov Sergey Vasilievich - post-graduate student of the South-West State University, Kursk; 8-915-517-55-45; svtrufanov@yandex.ru

You can read completely article in the russian historic-archival magazine “The Herald of an Archivist”. Read more about terms of subscription here .

Полностью материал публикуется в российском историко-архивоведческом журнале ВЕСТНИК АРХИВИСТА. Ознакомьтесь с условиями подписки здесь .

Documentary sources on the history of the Soviet judicial authority in the second half of 20th century

Written by Trufanov S.V.

Thursday, 07 October 2021 05:04
