

Religions policy of Nazi Germany concerning the Old Believers in the Baltic states (1941–1944)

Written by Aleynik M.E.

Thursday, 04 August 2022 04:22

Aleynik M.E.

Religions policy of Nazi Germany concerning the Old Believers in the Baltic states (1941–1944)

Annotation

The article based in source documents from Russian archives. The article is devoted to religious policy and advocacy activities of Nazi Germany in occupied territories, the situation of the Old Believers in the Baltic States and its relationship with the German authorities.

Written by Aleynik M.E.

Thursday, 04 August 2022 04:22

Keywords

Source, archive, The Old Believers, bespopovtsy, World War II, Germany, the Supreme Council of Old Believers, religion, advocacy, occupation.

Download the article: pdf

About the authors

Aleynik Maria Evgenievna – post-graduate student of the Department of Russian History and Archival Studies, St. Tikhon Orthodox University for the Humanities, Moscow; 8-915-059-08-52; princesse-gerodot@yandex.ru

You can read completely article in the russian historic-archival magazine “The Herald of an Archivist”. Read more about terms of subscription here .

Полностью материал публикуется в российском историко-архивоведческом журнале ВЕСТНИК АРХИВИСТА. Ознакомьтесь с условиями подписки здесь .