

Spichak A.V.

Documenting of marriage process in Russian Empire in 18th – 20th centuries. On materials of the Tobolsk State archive

Annotation

The article is devoted to consideration of documenting of marriage process in the Russian Empire in 18th – 20th centuries. In work is analyzed the structure, contents and registration of marriage documents of pre-revolutionary Russia. The author of this article revealed a complex of the documents used for this procedure, allocated requisites of documents.

Written by Spichak A.V.

Thursday, 06 October 2022 00:00

Keywords

Marriage document, Russian Orthodox Church, valuable historical source, Most Holy Governing Synod, archival documents, archival funds, Tobolsk diocese

Download the article: pdf

About the authors

Spichak Alexandra Vladimirovna – assistant of the Department of Documentation and World History, Nizhnevartovsk State University for the Humanities, Nizhnevartovsk; 8-912-530-50-23; northerly_nimfa@mail.ru

You can read completely article in the russian historic-archival magazine “The Herald of an Archivist”. Read more about terms of subscription here .

Полностью материал публикуется в российском историко-архивоведческом журнале ВЕСТНИК АРХИВИСТА. Ознакомьтесь с условиями подписки здесь .