

5th the All-Russia congress of the Russian society of historians-archivists (ROIA)

Written by editors
Monday, 18 April 2011 07:04

On March, 16th 2011 in Moscow begins work 5th All-Russia congress of the Russian society of historians-archivists (ROIA). The Venue – the Russian state humanitarian university (RGGU, Chajanov street, 15). The Russian society of historians-archivists - the public organization called actively to promote to formation of a civil society in our country, to perfection of archival branch to protect the professional both civil rights and interests of archival workers, to achieve objectivity of historical researches. Not casually in it historians, archivists and all, who responsibility for destiny of historical memory of the country and the people, a treasury of national consciousness have united and have rallied. Representatives of the Russian and foreign public organizations take part in congress work, archival and scientific institutions, museums and libraries, historical and humanitarian faculties of high schools, mass-media, of regional studies and search associations more than 150 delegates representing about 100 regional branches, representations, the primary organizations of the majority of subjects of the Russian Federation. With the report of Main board of ROIA on work from April, 2006 till March, 2011 the chairman of the board of Main board of ROIA the corresponding member of the Russian Academy of Sciences Efim Iosifovich Pivovarov acts.

5th the All-Russia congress of the Russian society of historians-archivists (ROIA)

Written by editors
Monday, 18 April 2011 07:04

5th the All-Russia congress of the Russian society of historians-archivists (ROIA)

Written by editors
Monday, 18 April 2011 07:04

and the Russian State Planning Academy University for the Russian historians-archivists congress. The level of an